SAINT OF THE WEEK Born in 972AD, St Henry was the son of the Duke of Bavaria and his mother was descended from the King of Burgundy. At the death of his cousin, Otho III, in 1002AD, Henry became the second Holy Roman Emperor to bear that name. Later on he added 'King of Italy' to his titles. His reign marked a centralising of power within the European continent and Henry was not without enemies. However, his humility and spirit of justice were equal to his zeal for religion. He was to become an Oblate of the Benedictine order, but never a full member. His wife, St Cunegundes is also noted as a saint of the Church. St Henry is the Patron Saint of Dukes, those with disabilities and those unable to join religious orders.

Confession and Exposition Times The Sacrament of Reconciliation is celebrated weekly at St David and St Patrick's on Saturday evenings from 5:15pm to 5:45pm and at Narberth before the Sunday evening Mass. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament generally takes place on Monday mornings after the Mass from 10:30am to 11:30am.

Apostleship of the Sea (AoS) This weekend is Sea Sunday when we keep in mind the work of the AoS and those who spend the greater part of their working life at sea. The AoS is the official maritime and welfare and mission agency of the Catholic Church in Great Britain, supporting over one million seafarers each year: that's 1/3 of the population of Wales, many of whom share our Catholic faith. The AoS can be found at many ports including Milford Haven and Port Talbot, both within our Diocese. As requested by the bishops of England and Wales, there will be a second collection this weekend to support the AoS.

A Note of Gratitude Thank you to anyone who helped prepare for Liz Dobson's funeral Mass and for the wonderful refreshments in the hall afterwards. Your hard work was appreciated and words of gratitude flooded in from her friends and family. A massive thanks from me for all your support. Helen.

End of Term Mass It won't be long before Mary Immaculate School, and all the schools of our County, start the summer holidays. There will be an end-of-term Mass at the school on Monday 17th July, at the slightly later time of 10:30am

Parrish Arrangements So far the summer arrangements of Mass times seem to be working well, with every parish in the deanery being provided for both Sunday Masses and Holiday Masses. Of course, the clergy are aware that we're not getting to see our congregations as much. This is regrettable, so I'd like to thank you for your understanding as we try to provide the best service possible. The current provision of Mass times will cease at the end of August. Until then, please keep those priests who are not well in your thoughts and prayers.

Welsh National Pilgrimage to Lourdes In the very near future, some members of our parish will be going to Lourdes as part of the Welsh National Pilgrimage. If anyone has any prayer intentions which they would like to be carried to the shrine, please write them down and put them in a sealed envelope, placing your intentions through the presbytery letterbox. Your intentions will be conveyed to the shrine and included in the prayers offered at the daily Mass celebrated at the Grotto of Massabielle, where St Bernadette saw the vision of the Immaculate Conception.

Absences This week Fr Liam will be in London for a meeting with colleagues at the Bishops' Conference. Next week he will also be going to Manchester for a regular meeting. Please keep him in your prayers as he travels about the UK fulfilling various priestly duties.

WILL YOU FIND ONE MOMENT THIS WEEK TO PRAY FOR THOSE OF OUR PARISH WHO ARE ILL? Terri Atherton, Annie Carter, Mercedes Davies, Hannah Fennell, Peter Fowler, Bryn Hancock, Anne Harding, Margaret Higgins, Janet Jenkins, Mary Philips, Indra Singh, Teresa Thomas, Toby Williams.
