Fr Liam writes I have already received many thank you gifts and I'm deeply touched by your generosity - but it is me who should be thanking you. There is little which can be achieved in a parish, if it is not for the work and effort of so many, work that is often, to our eyes at least, menial, repetitive and dull. And yet, these are precisely the tasks which keep the parish alive: if the washers on taps were not replaced, we would be in a flood; if the carpet were not hovered, we would be in a mess; if the lights were not turned off, the electricity bill would be soaring; if the toilet roll were not replaced...well you get my point. And then there are those who visit the sick, who offer lifts, who teach our children and so on and so forth - tasks that keep the faith vibrant and evangelise the community! And then there are those of us - all of us - who quietly light a candle, kneel in adoration and with bowed heads offer a prayer to our Father. This is the most important thank you of all which bears witness to the fact that, many years ago, in a small corner of a small town, a young lady gave birth to a little boy. In this simple moment the Word became Flesh and dwelt among us. The almighty and ineffable God graced us by his most merciful coming, that we might live in peace. May each of us be thankful that we have come to another year with the gift of faith intact. May peace dwell in our homes, merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO ARE ILL Terri Atherton, Mercedes Davies, Hannah Fennell, Peter Fowler, Jeffrey Frank, Bryn Hancock, Anne Harding, Margaret Higgins, Janet Jenkins, Mary Philips, John Rees, Indra Singh, Ben Stabow, Teresa Thomas, Toby Williams, Kay Whelan.
