SACRAMENT OF THE SICK If you know that you will be going in to hospital for an operation and would like to receive the Sacrament of the Sick, please do let me know in advance of your admission. If you find yourself staying in hospital for an unscheduled visit, then inform the nursing staff of your faith if you wish to see me. In the event of an emergency causing you to arrive to hospital, please contact me through the hospital staff and switchboard. The switchboard staff are able to make contact with me more quickly than simply calling the parish office. Also, if I am away, the switchboard staff have the contact number of a supply priest who is provide chaplaincy cover. Thank you.

FUNERALS Please keep in your prayers Joan Tiglao and her family. A memorial service will be held for Joan on the 27th January at 10:00am, please also pray for the repose of the soul of Lilia Tabago, Joan's mother, who has also recently died. Mr Andrius Lisauskas's previously advertised funeral service will not now be taking place in Haverfordwest; this is because the family have chosen to conduct his funeral in their home country of Lithuania.
