Saint of the Week. On the 1st March, the country and our parish celebrate the Solemnity of St David, the patron saint of both our parish and Wales. St David would have known this area well, given that he was born at St Non's, just a stone's throw from St David's City where his monastic foundation began. Born in about 500AD he lived an austere life, but was most eloquent in his preaching and gave rise to various churches in south Wales. He was well travelled and even went as far as Jerusalem. He coordinated Christian activity in Wales by holding a synod (meeting) of bishops at Llandewi Brefi.

FUNERALS Please pray for the repose of the soul of Marie Caulfield who died this week. Her funeral Mass will take place on 15th March at 10:00am, followed by burial at City Road Cemetery. May the Lord bless her and keep her into eternity. Pray also too for Sr Paula Magher who died last week and whose funeral Mass will take place at St Teresa's Convent, Fishguard at 12:20pm on Wednesday 28th February.

CAFOD LENTEN FAST The Lenten family fast was on Friday 23rd February. If you have saved any money through your fast, this may be donated to CAFOD using the envelopes provided. They may be placed in the collection basket with your customary donation.

PENITENTIAL SERVICE on Tuesday 20th March at 7:00pm. The speaker is coming from Cardiff to present on human sexuality and how NFP can be used to both enhance the likelihood of pregnancy, and to delay pregnancy if a couple are not yet ready to conceive.
