PASTORAL LETTER ON THE ASSISTED SUICIDE BILL: Our Archbishop, Most Rev Mark O'Toole is concerned through his Pastoral letter to shout out to oppose an Assisted Suicide Bill that has been introduced in the Parliament by raising our voices to urge the local MP through writing or an email, and express concerns about the bill. The information is available on the Right to life – <https://righttolife.org.uk> – website and poster of how to do this. You can find QR Code at both entrances of our Church doors to access and visit the Bishops' Conference website with your smartphone cameras. Many people are raising voices against this, time to join hands with them to support and safeguard the lives of the affected members of our families.

Farewell to Rev Fr. Paul Joseph: Rev. Fr. Paul will be leaving Haverfordwest to take up Maesteg & Aberkenfig. He has been ministering in our parish for the past three years. He has been a great asset to the parish. We as a parishioners will miss him. It is part of every priest's life to move on to minister people of God as per the need, and necessity. Kindly gather in the hall for the farewell Fr. Paul. Refreshments will be there too, after the Holy Mass. Welcome one & all...! We extend to Fr. Paul Joseph our prayerful wishes, and all the best in a new Parish.

HALL & HALL COMMITTEE: I am very pleased to announce that after a long wait, we have a few volunteers to help with the hall. I am indebted to all of them and hope the hall and the functions in the hall will flourish under their care. The Hall Committee members are: Anne Hancock (In-Charge & Booking Manager), Sharon Farren, Anne Puffett, Ann Soper & Christine Chalker. Every now and then, they would need an extra pair of hands. Kindly help them. Hall Hire is £15 per hour; 30 min before & 30 min after the booked hours are free to prepare & clean & close.
